Receive a warm welcome from strolling carolers upon arrival to charming St. Francisville. The exclusive lineup of Christmas markets offers something for everyone-- music, seasonal goods and locally produced crafts.

Enjoy turn of the century elegance aboard the American Queen, with Victorian charm and 19th Century opulence. The casual ambiance requires no formal wear. Savor sumptuous regional specialties and watch the world roll by from the Paddlewheel Lounge, through floor to ceiling windows. With its new All-Inclusive designation, American Queen offers complimentary excursions at each port, wine and beer with dinner, bottled water, soft drinks and cappuccino, plus daily lectures by their onboard historian. We'll fly to Memphis, home of the Blues and the birthplace of Rock n' Roll and check into our deluxe downtown hotel. Venture into the streets of Memphis at leisure to enjoy famed eateries, unique boutiques and lively entertainment. We enjoy a relaxing day of cruising down the winding Mississippi, with a host of activities onboard. Our first port of call is the next day in Vicksburg, site of one of the Civil War's most bitter battles. Described as the "Key to the South" by Abraham Lincoln, this southern town celebrates the Christmas holiday with a traditional flair. This evening we'll be treated to a stirring holiday performance by local musicians. We travel next to Natchez, the oldest city on the Mississippi and home to restored mansions such as Rosalie, Magnolia Hall and Stanton Hall. Next is Baton Rouge, Louisiana's Capital rich in cultural history. Then its on to St. Francisville, site of Rosedown Plantation and The Myrtles (one of America's most haunted homes). Next we'll visit Nottoway, the South's largest, most glorious remaining Antebellum mansion. Located along the River Road overlooking the Mississippi, this "White Castle" of the South will host a Christmas Ball complete with period costumes. We disembark in New Orleans-- birthplace of jazz, and depart on a City Tour.
